SUMMARY

In 2021 Geraldika.ru¹ celebrates the 20th anniversary. The countdown of our history started with the domain geraldika.ru registration.

All these twenty years we have worked fruitfully and collected information from miscellaneous sources. Numerous changes and updates were occurred, various innovations were introduced. The forum was full of discussions at different levels of significance and emotional tension. Many projects were created and supported, opened and sometimes, unfortunately, closed.

During this time, many of our friends and guests have left their big contribution on Geraldika.ru web pages. We remember everyone and value your help. As always, we are open for mutual cooperation, which, in addition to undoubted love to heraldry, is the basis for our lifestyle and professional activities.

The most important part of our large network is the Gerbovnik.ru web project. This is a truly unique database and graphic source for the Russian noble heraldry. Thanks to the verily tremendous efforts of our team members and friends, we were able to collect a colossal array of heraldic materials from the Russian and foreign archives, museums, libraries and private collections.

Geraldika.ru's activities have long gone beyond just web pages. And the presented digest of scientific and publicistic articles is a natural and expected continuation of our expansion life cycle. Here we have collected and published miscellaneous scientific materials on heraldic research topics. Our really gorgeous and respected experts have described and discussed a wide range of questions both related to the history of the Russian and European heraldry and about the heraldic practice centuries ago and nowadays.

This anniversary scientific collection of articles is entitled «Heraldic Issues». But this book provides answers only to a bit of questions within the whole infinite heraldic scope. Even more issues still remain unsolved and yet undescribed. Such cases are still waiting for their researchers and new publications, probably full of discoveries.

This book is also published in the year, when the famous Russian heraldist Igor Borisov would hold his 85th anniversary. And this year also we celebrate the 300th anniversary of the Russian Heraldmeister's office at the Senate created in 1722.

We sincerely believe in the relevance, demand and necessity of our work for the successful extension and prosperity of the Russian heraldry, which is an essential part of our lifestyle. And we will continue to strive for unattainable perfection.
